

2003 Marlin Cole International Travel Grant

Six scholarships of $500 each will be awarded to students taking the course Econ 496 in Spring 2003. The funds will be made available at the end of the Spring 2003 semester.

Criteria and Requirements:

1. The Marlin Cole scholarships are restricted to majors in either economics or agricultural business.
2. Students interested in being considered for one of the Marlin Cole scholarships must submit a written statement (no more than one page, double spaced) after the Spain/France trip, addressing what they consider was the most important educational experience from this course/trip. (Due Monday, March 31 by 5 p.m.).
3. The provisional list of six scholarship recipients will be announced in on Wednesday, April 2. The provisional recipients will be the students with the best performance in the Econ 496 course up to Monday, March 31 from among the students that satisfy requirements (1) and (2) above.
4. Provisional recipients will then be required to design a website as a team. The website must be up and running by Monday, May 5. In designing the website, the team must take into account that its purpose is to use it as an informational tool to attract students for future offerings of the travel course Econ 496.
5. Provisional recipients may be called upon to give an oral presentation at an Ag Business club meeting or at some other appropriate event.
6. Marlin Cole scholarship funds will be released upon satisfactory performance of requirements (4) and (5) above.
