VIII. Research Grants and Contracts:

"A Cross-Sectional Analysis of Non-Farm Work of Farm Family Members," USDL, Manpower Administration grant funded July 1, 1974 - June 30, 1975 for $21,577. Oklahoma State and Iowa State University.

"Historical Perspectives on the Performance and Support of Agricultural Research and Extension Programs in the United States," USDA-CSRS funded October 1, 1980 - September 30, 1981 for $63,500. Yale University (with Robert Evenson, Yale University).

"International Trade and Immigration: U.S. - Mexican Agriculture," USDA, ERS-EDD, September 22, 1982 - September 30, 1984 for $30,000.

"The Public Agricultural Research System: An Economic Perspective on Performance and Support, 1890-1980," USDA-CSRS Cooperative Agreement, Oct. 1984 - Dec. 1986 ($40,000). This is a companion project to one funded to Robert Evenson, Yale University. The combined projects are to yield a book for the 1987 Centennial of the Agricultural Experiment Station System.

"Symposium on Contributions of Experiment Stations to Human Resources Research," Cooperative Agreement with USDA-CSRS, Sept. 1984 - Jan. 1987 ($30,000). Symposium held March 5-7, 1986, St. Louis, MO. Proceedings became a book for the 1987 Centennial of the Agricultural Experiment Stations. Ruth Deacon and Wallace Huffman were co-leaders.

"Economic Development and Business Cycle Effects on Income and Welfare of Rural Households," funded by The Aspen Institute and Ford Foundation, Jan. 1987 - Dec. 1988 ($70,373). Wallace Huffman was co-leader with M. Tienda, University of Chicago.

Grants from IR-6, "National and Regional Research Planning, Evaluation, Analyses and Coordination," Technical Committee of $10,000 in fiscal 1990 and $12,000 in 1991.

"Farm and Off-Farm Labor Allocation with the Farm Operator Household," Cooperative Agreement with USDA-ERS, Oct. 1, 1991 - Sept. 30, 1992 ($10,000).

IR-6 (Interregional Committee for Agricultural Research Evaluation). $22,000 during 1990-1992.

"Estimating Economic Effects of Environmental Control, Farm Commodity Program Parameters, and Composition of Agricultural Research on State Agricultural Productivity and Structure," USDA-ERS/ISU Cooperative Agreement with $45,000 for 1992-96.

"Implications of NAFTA for Midwest Pork Production and Trade," CSRS/USDA Grant ($15,000) through Midwest Agribusiness Trade Research and Information Center (MATRIC Competitive Grant) in cooperation with the National Pork Producers Council, 1993-94 (with B. Melton).

"Consumer Perceptions of Qualitative Differences in Pork Products," Grant from the National Pork

Producers Council ($15,000), 1994 (with B. Melton and J. Shogren).

"Implications of NAFTA for the Competitive Position and Comparative Advantage of Midwest Fed Beef Production and Marketing," (6/93-6/94) Contract ($10,000) through Midwest Agribusiness Trade Research and Information Center (MATRIC Competitive Grant) 1994-95 (with B. Melton).

"Relative Economic Values of Pork Characteristics," Contract with National Pork Producers' Council ($40,000 for 1994-95) with Bryan Melton.

"Opportunity Cost Measures of the Value of Operator and Spouse Farm Labor," A Memorandum of Understanding between USDA-ERS and ISU, 1994-96.

"Reforming Rural Land, Capital, Labor, and Water Markets," US-AID BASIS CRSP Proposal, Consortium led by Texas A&M University, May 2, 1996. Total request of $10.8 million over 5 years with $1 million for my labor market research, but unfunded.

Contract with the World Bank to write a research proposal A n International Comparison of Efficiency and Productivity of Agricultural Research Units, June 1-July 31, 1998. $7,000.

"The Economic Value of Information for Public Policy and Farmers Decisions," USDA-ERS Cooperative Agreement with Robin Shoemaker and Abe Tegene (for $45,000, 10/98-12/2000).

Contract with ISNAR (The Hague, The Netherlands) to write overview paper: "Developments in the Organization and Finance of Agricultural Research in the USA, 1989-1999," June 14-July 15, 1999. $3,000.

"Consortium to Address Social, Economic, and Ethical Aspects of Biotechnology," USDA's Initiative for Future Agriculture and Food Systems (IFAFS) Grant funded for $3.6 million, Oct. 2000-Sept. 2004. One of 20 principal investigators for research.

"The Economic Value of Information for Public Policy and Farmers Decision," USDA-ERS Cooperative Agreement with Abe Tegene (for additional $10,000, 8-15-01 to 9-30-03).

"The Counterfactual Study: What Would the World Look Like Without, With Less, or With More Formula Funds," Subcontract from the University of Maryland (and ESCOP), June 2002-May 30, 2003, $23,000.

"U.S. Consumers' Acceptance of Second-Generation Genetically Modified Foods: How Labels and Information Affect Demand," January 22, 2004 ($326K). USDA, National Research Initiatives Proposal. Unfunded.

"An International Comparison of Obesity Rates in Western High Income Countries and Policies to Reverse Recent Trends: The Role of Culture, Prices, Income and Preferences," June 15, 2004 ($1,300K), USDA, National Research Initiatives Proposal. Favorable evaluation but unfunded.

"An International Comparison of Obesity Rates in Western High Income Countries and Policies to Reverse Recent Trends: The Role of Culture, Prices, Income and Preferences,"

USDA, ERS, Cooperative Agreement with Abe Tegene, $20,000, Oct. 1, 2004 to Sept. 30, 2006.

“A Comparison of Obesity Rates and Food Policies in Western High Income Countries,” Feb. 1, 2005. ($1,700K), NIH, Economics of Obesity Program. Unfunded.

“An International Comparison of Obesity Rates in Western High Income Countries and Policies to Reverse Recent Trends: The Role of Culture, Prices, Income and Preferences,” June 15, 2005 ($1,700K), USDA, National Research Initiatives Proposal. Unfunded.

“Economics of Diet, Physical Activity and Energy Balance in U.S. Adults: An Exploratory Analysis,” Feb. 1, 2006($400K). Unfunded NIH, Economics of Diet, Exercise and Energy Balance Competitive Grant Program.

“Economics of Diet, Physical Activity and Energy Balance in U.S. Adults. May 2006 ($400K). Unfunded USDA-ERS Food Assistance and Nutrition Research Competitive Grant Program.

“Economics of Diet, Physical Activity and Energy Balance in U.S. Adults. June 2006 ($500K). Unfunded USDA-NRI, Human Nutrition and Obesity Competitive Grant Program.

“Experimental Evidence on Consumers’ Willingness to Pay for Intragenic GMOs and Information Effects.” Funded by J.R. Simplot Corporation, Aug. 2006-July 2008 ($20K).

“Economics of Diet, Physical Activity and Energy Balance in U.S. Adults: An Exploratory Analysis,” Re-submission, March 16, 2007($400K). Pending. NIH, Economics of Diet, Exercise and Energy Balance Competitive Grant Program.

“Effects of Prices, Food Availability, Food Stamp Program Participation and Time Allocation on Obesity of Young Adults: New Evidence from Twenty-Five Year of Panel Data.” Submitted to the USDA-ERS Food Assistance and Nutrition Research Competitive Grant Program ($300K), May 15, 2007, and to the USDA-NRI Competitive Grant Program on Human Nutrition and Obesity, June 3, 2007. Unfunded.

“The Economics of Obesity in the NLSY79 Panel. March 2008. $50,000 funded for 2 years.

“Economics of Diet, Physical Activity and Energy Balance in U.S. Adults: Primary Data Collection.” Re-Submission to NIH, March 17, 2008. ($400K). Pending.
