

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY, Manhattan, KS

J0 Labor Economics

Kansas State University invites applications for a tenure-track opening beginning August 2010 at the assistant professor level. Position requires Ph.D. or expected completion by fall 2010. Candidates are expected to provide quality teaching at undergraduate and graduate levels, contribute to Department's Ph.D. program, and publish in leading journals. Normal teaching load is 6 hours per semester. Candidates willing to teach microeconomic theory at master's level and a Ph.D. course in labor economics will be given preference. Candidate should have commitment to work with a wide range of constituents and diverse student population. Interested individuals should send letter of application, curriculum vita, brief statement describing research and teaching interests, photocopy of graduate transcripts, sample of recent research, evidence of teaching effectiveness if available, and arrange to have sent at least 3 letters of recommendation to Search Committee, Dept. of Economics, 327 Waters Hall, Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS 66506-4001. Interviews will be conducted at the ASSA meetings. Screening of applications begins November 16, 2009, and continues until position is filled. Kansas State University is an Equal opportunity, Affirmative-action employer, and actively seeks diversity among its employees. Background check is required for employment.

--

Department of Economics
327 Waters Hall
Kansas State University
Manhattan, KS 66506-4001
Tel: (785) 532-4587
Fax: (785) 532-6919