

ECONOMICS HELP ROOM (AY 2023-24)

Teaching Coordinator: Sergio H. Lence, 368E Heady (shlence@iastate.edu)
Help Room Supervisor: Angelos Lagoudakis, 178B Heady (angelosl@iastate.edu)

The Help Room is located at 178 Heady Hall. The Help Room is open in the Fall and Spring semesters, typically from 9 AM-5 PM (or 8 AM-6 PM if there are enough TAs available to staff it) Monday through Friday. The usual Help Room schedule may be modified during finals week to accommodate the finals of teaching assistants (TAs) and students. The Help Room has a supervisor and is staffed by on-duty TAs.

Purposes

- The Help Room's main purpose is to help students taking ECON 101, ECON 102, ECON 207, ECON 301, and ECON 302 outside of the regular office hours scheduled for those courses.
- The Help Room will also help students taking other undergraduate economics courses outside of the regular office hours scheduled for such courses.
- Upon request to the Help Room supervisor by a course instructor, students in that course can submit and/or pick up homework and exams at the Help Room.
- The Help Room can be used to proctor exams for individual students who cannot take tests at the regularly scheduled times for their courses.
- Upon request to the Help Room supervisor by a course instructor, the Help Room will provide TAs to proctor exams at regularly scheduled times for that course.
