

Iowa State University Department of Economics

Friday, July 16, 2021

Announcements

Data storage needs survey ends Aug. 2

A storage advisory committee and IT units are conducting a survey regarding electronic data storage needs. It's open through Aug. 2.

Department Highlights

New publication for Turhan

Bertan Turhan, assistant professor, had his paper, "Slot-specific Priorities with Capacity Transfers," joint with Michelle Avataneo (Northwestern), accepted for publication at Games and Economic Behavior.

After 44 years in the classroom, Deiter looks ahead

Ron Deiter's work ethic and eventual career got their start on his family's Wisconsin dairy farm.

Hayes: Court line speed decision not good for worker safety

Dermot Hayes, professor, was interviewed in a July 15 FarmWeekNow.com story, "Pork industry dealing with 'unintended consequences' of court ruling."

Where you live after graduation matters: Winters

John Winters, associate professor, was quoted in a July 14 Seattle Times story, "Skip College? Not if You Want to Make More Money."

Orazem: Workforce participation rate has stalled

Peter Orazem, university professor, appeared on the July 2 episode of Iowa PBS's Iowa Press.

Hart: Farm revenue driven by Chinese demand, drought

Chad Hart, professor, was interviewed for a July 2 Progressive Farmer story, "Keep the Good Times Rolling."

People not fat and sassy from benefits: Swenson

David Swenson, research scientist, had multiple recent media interviews:

Follow us on FACEBOOK

Follow us on TWITTER